Bollywood comes to The Orpheus Centre

Students at The Orpheus Centre in Godstone were treated to some lively Bollywood moves recently, when members of Caterham Round Table visited the centre which teaches performing arts to students with disabilities. The special visit was arranged in order to present the students with a cheque for £12,500. The money was the proceeds of the Caterham Round Table 'Bollywood Ball' held last January at the Effingham Park Hotel in Copthorne.

Around 400 guests attended the glamorous event, many of them entering into the spirit of the occasion and dressing up in true Bollywood style. The founder of The Orpheus Centre, songwriter Richard Stilgoe, was guest of honour at the ball. Chairman of Caterham Round Table, Peter Domett, said: "We must say a massive thank you to all of the members, friends and family members of Caterham Round Table for all of the hard work they've put in ahead of this year's annual charity ball, all helping to make it one of the best ever." Caterham Round Table is an organisation for men aged between 18-45 who would like to have fun, try new experiences, meet new people and put something back into the community. The group meets on Tuesday evenings at The Surrey National Golf Club in Chaldon. They would be delighted to welcome visitors who would like to find out more about Caterham Round Table. For more information e-mail Glen O'Dwyer at glen@comp-solutions.co.uk or visit www.caterhamtable.com

Snow forces cancellation of Easter Bunny Fun Run

The sixth Rotary Easter Bunny Fun Run scheduled for Sunday 24th March had to be cancelled due to the dangerous icy conditions on the 5k Race and 1k Fun Run routes. The organisers at Caterham Rotary Club hope to reschedule the event for the end of April if Queen's Park pavilion is available. Updates will be posted on the Fun Run website at www.rotaryruns.co.uk

Apprenticeship campaign launch attracts over 70 local businesses

On Friday 15th March, East Surrey MP Sam Gyimah kick-started his East Surrey Apprenticeship Campaign: 100 apprenticeships in 100 days. The breakfast launch, supported by Nutfield based Chalk Hills Bakery, which took place in Oxted Cinema at the end of National Apprenticeship Week was attended by over 70 large and small local organisations with an interest in recruiting an apprentice. At the end of the two hour breakfast meeting firms were asked for pledges and over 10 organisations pledged immediately to recruit an apprentice. Tandridge District Council led the way with new Chief Executive, Louise Round, pledging to hire three apprentices.

Sam Gyimah MP with Rachel Robinson of the National Apprenticeship Service.

Speaking after the event Mr Gyimah said: "I'm really thrilled that ten businesses stepped forward with a pledge at the launch but there is still a long way to go to hit our target of a 100. Over the coming weeks and months I'll be contacting other firms to let them know how they could benefit from taking on an apprentice."

Look who's behind the bar at The Whyteleafe Tavern!

EastEnders star Shane Ritchie took to the stage at The Whyteleafe Tavern recently when the pub hosted a fundraising Comedy Night for Whyteleafe School PTA on Friday, 8th March.

His appearance was a complete surprise to the audience as Shane had only agreed to make an appearance at the last minute following a request by his friend and compère for the evening Sajeela Kershi. Sajeela completed a line-up that also featured other seasoned comedians Anthony Ayton, Taff, Tez Ilyas, Ant Dewson and Al Cowie. The evening raised over £700 for the PTA, who have decided the money will be spent on the children's wish list for the school. This includes items such as outdoor seating where the children can eat their packed lunches in the summer.

PTA Chairman, Phil Woodgate, said: "It is nice to have events such as this that bring the community together. We are very grateful to the comedians for giving their time for free, Dave and Minna Sellman who organised the event and provided the fantastic buffet and to landlord Tom Dempsey for providing The Whyteleafe Tavern function room." The Whyteleafe Tavern Comedy Club is held every first Friday of the month. Tickets cost £7 and the shows start at 8pm. For more information or to book seats call 07845 757610.

Take the plunge with Croy-Tech Sub Aqua Club

by Julia Church

My daughter Jenny and I went along to the Royal Russell School in Coombe Lane, Croydon recently to take part in a 'Try Dive' session with Croy-Tech Sub Aqua Club. The club meets at the school's indoor pool every Monday evening to practise diving and plan their excursions into open water when the warmer weather arrives.

Non-members can try out the sport by booking a two-hour visit on a Monday evening. When Jenny and I arrived we were introduced to the members and taken through to the pool to be shown the diving equipment and have the safety procedures explained to us by club chairman, Daniel Golberg. We then put on our swimming costumes and a t-shirt and were helped into our dive kits. The heavy kits comprised our dive jackets that held the breathing apparatus, air gauge, pressure vessel containing compressed air and other essential equipment. We then put on our masks and carefully climbed down the steps into the pool before putting the enormous fins on our feet.

Jenny and I then fully submerged to practise breathing underwater before venturing off for a swim, closely supervised by the experts of course. To start with I did not know what to do with my arms as I normally bob along doing breast-stroke in the water but Daniel explained that you keep your arms by your side and let your legs propel you through the water. Learning to control the depth of our swim and manoeuvre around the pool was thoroughly enjoyable. We spent a good hour in the pool and afterwards I felt exhilarated and very proud of myself. It was enormous fun and I recommend everyone should give diving a try! The club has its own boat moored at Brighton Marina which they use at different locations where interesting wrecks and rocky coastlines can be explored.

Membership of Croy-Tech Sub Aqua Club includes all training. To book a Try Dive at the reduced rate of £10 visit www.croytech.co.uk or contact the secretary on 020 8660 0633.

In the spotlight

This month we feature Caterham resident Dave Roberts. Dave works as a volunteer at Ridge Radio hosting his popular 'Music for Grown Ups' show every Tuesday evening from 7pm-9pm and Saturday evening from 6pm-8pm. www.ridgeradio.co.uk.

Birthplace: Moreton in the Marsh (how quaint), Gloucestershire.

Marital Status: Married 32 years to my lovely Sally.

Children: Fay 25 and Elly 22.

Cars: Peugeot and Vauxhall. What I know or care about cars I could write on a frog's ear.

Pets: Cat - Frankie (The Hairy One).

Childhood hero: Michael Palin and Spike Milligan.

Pastimes: Ridge Radio; Singing in a band; Keep fit.

Dave Roberts.

Favourite Food & Drink: Sunday roast and real ale.

Likes: Doing my show; Sunshine; Family; Working up a good sweat in the gym.

Dislikes: Unfairness.

Favourite TV show: Frasier.

Favourite book: Tough one this....I'm not much of a reader. Anything factual or historical.

Who would you most like to throw a custard pie at?

The delightful person who started the concept of reality TV. I think I'd eat the custard pie and throw something much harder at them.

Favourite song of all time: Impossible to answer. It would depend on my mood but probably something by Jeff Buckley.

Favourite holiday destination: Of the places I've been to I found Budapest to be the most fascinating.

Biggest influence on your life: My Dad. Apparently I'm turning into him (according to my daughters).

Proudest moment: The first time my daughters called me Dad.

Most embarrassing moment: I went on a blind date. It turned out the girl was really after my mate. (I was only 14....I'm over it now).

Where would you most like to live?

Many places spring to mind but I could do a lot worse than Caterham so I'll stay here for now. (I wouldn't mind a bigger house).

Hillcroft Primary School celebrates latest OFSTED report

The latest OFSTED report for Hillcroft Primary School in Caterham-on-the-Hill has concluded that it is a good school that has improved significantly since the last inspection. During their rigorous inspection on 22nd and 23rd January the OFSTED team observed lessons and spoke to staff, children, governors, parents and carers. Further evidence was also provided by the parents who completed questionnaires. The report highlighted the quality of the school's leadership, the progress of the children, the significant improvement in the quality of teaching and the good behaviour of pupils, commenting that the children of Hillcroft are 'proud of their school'. In addition, the report highlighted that the school has an accurate view of its strengths and weaknesses and has the capacity to improve further. The pupils are hoping to share some of their school's success with disadvantaged children in the Philippines who are being provided with over 150 rucksacks of stationery, learning resources and eating utensils, paid for by the Hillcroft pupils. Over half a term their various fundraising efforts raised a total of £2,430 for the 'School in a Bag' project to help children less fortunate than themselves in conjunction with www.p-c-f.org

Emily wins Gold in London Disability Gymnastics

by Charlotte Jacobs

On Sunday 24th February, Emily Westergaard-Belcher, a year seven student from Oasis Academy Coulsdon, won gold in the London Disability Gymnastics floor and vault competition.

The success comes just three months after Emily, from Old Coulsdon, began attending the Zodiac Gymnastics Club in Coulsdon. Eleven year-old Emily who has cerebral palsy was the first person to represent Zodiac in a disability competition.

Emily prepared her own 30 second routine for the competition that took place at the Europa Gymnastics Centre in Kent. Emily's parents and coach were there to support her.

Emily said: "I was one of the last to perform so I was really nervous. I saw a girl who had done lots of training and her performance was really good so I thought she would win." Emily's nerves had no detrimental effect as she won a gold medal!

She said: "I was so happy, I remember my coach Becca kept jumping up and down." With her medal in hand a happy Emily went home before the final trophy ceremony. The next day Emily was amazed to find out that she had also won a gold trophy for scoring the highest out of all the female gymnasts. As Emily had missed the trophy ceremony she was presented with her trophy at her next Zodiac gymnastics class. Offering advice to other people with disabilities Emily said: "Be yourself; if people tell you that you can't do something, show them that you can."

Diary of a Plantaholic

by Sue Baines

At this time of year a job in time saves nine! Everything is on the move, pests as well as the plants. Prioritising work, bearing in mind that we can still have heavy frosts or snow, is important. Hardy annuals like Love In A Mist, Corncockle, and Cornflower to name just a few, should be fine, just broadcast on finely raked soil. Some of mine had set seed last year, saving me a job. Half-hardy seeds need to be protected until the danger of frost is over.

Some of our large plants have been moved on into larger pots, a good job for the spring, as they have the whole season ahead to grow on. If the plant is a standard or at all top heavy, it is worth using a heavy container, and soil based compost. I use a John Innes number 3 as it has longer lasting properties than number 2. Multi purpose is OK to use if the plant is unlikely to blow over, but a long-life fertiliser will need to be added.

I am planning to cut back the Hydrangeas. The flower heads have been left on, as they are supposed to protect the new buds through winter. I usually take out any old, weak and crossing stems, and then cut back from the old flower head down the stem to the first strong pair of buds. I give them all a long-life feed too. The lawn has had its first brief rake, and looks so much better. Feeding will start once it is growing strongly. I am tired, but happy. I love spring!

Treat yourself to a trip to 'The Green Rooms' this spring

A delightful place to visit this spring is 'The Green Rooms' in Godstone. Situated opposite Godstone Green, the owners Sylvia and Jeremy welcome customers to their 'tea rooms with attitude (good attitude!)' as Sylvia puts it! The spacious tea rooms decorated in pretty pastel shades, with quirky accessories, is the perfect setting for their wonderful home-cooked food that ranges from traditional breakfasts to sumptuous cream teas.

Sylvia said: "We serve traditional fried breakfasts all day or you can have a three course meal in the morning if that is what you want. We always work using top produce and cook as we would cook for ourselves at home." Sylvia, a baker's daughter, and Jeremy helped Sylvia's father run his bakers in Wandsworth for ten years before he retired, then set up their own business in Godstone.

Sylvia said: "We came to Godstone for the first time when we saw this business for sale and we thought it was genuinely one of the nicest places. I think the local community appreciate what we are creating here for them."

As well as serving popular savoury dishes such as fried breakfasts, paninis, lasagne and salmon fishcakes customers can indulge in a very decadent afternoon tea with Eyelash Curling Lemon Drizzle Slices, cupcakes, cookies and Sylvia's famous 'Whoopie Pies'.

The Green Rooms is open seven days a week from 8.30am until 5pm or when the last customer goes home. Sylvia and Jeremy have lots of plans including barbecues in the summer, 'Gentlemen's teas' and 'Mad Hatter Tea Parties' for children. They are also starting the 'Sociable Supper Club' just after Easter. "Just give us a go!" says Sylvia.

For more information call The Green Rooms on 01883 740407, search for The Green Rooms of Godstone on Facebook or follow them on Twitter at @Godstonegreen.

Barclays hosts 'Speed Networking' event for local business people

On Thursday 15th March over 40 local business people attended a 'Speed Networking' event at Barclays Bank in Caterham. Professions ranging from estate agents, accountants, IT experts and even a bailiff mingled at the event, being compelled to move around the room and speak to someone new each time Barclays Area Manager, Chris Evans, blew his whistle!

Barclays provided wine, soft drinks and a tasty buffet prepared by Bloomers Bakery for the visitors, most of whom had arrived straight from work. Barclays Local Business Managers, Rob Burchett and Emma Carpenter who organised the event were delighted to see so many people in attendance.

Emma Carpenter said: "We are absolutely over the moon. It is a brilliant turnout, one of the best events we have held."

Caterham and Oxted NCT needs volunteers

by Rachel Hannaford

Your NCT branch is run by volunteers and we need your help!

Run by local parents, we offer support, groups, information and friendship to new parents and parents-to-be around Caterham, Oxted and Edenbridge, including Warlingham, Hurst Green, Limsfield and Godstone areas. However, the branch is under threat of closure as they don't have enough volunteers to keep the groups and services that they offer going.

This will mean the end of parent and toddler groups, ante-natal classes, new mums coffee mornings, our coffee, cake and play afternoons and the extremely popular nearly new sales.

Volunteering is a great opportunity to make friends and use your existing skills - or to learn new ones, as no experience is required to help out.

With various roles available, requiring different levels of time commitments, from one hour every month to hosting coffee mornings on a rotation basis, the branch is looking for anyone who has some spare time which they want to put to good use.

Do you have experience in any of the following:

Listening to people, giving support; Writing press features and articles; Baking cakes; Fundraising; Running a baby or toddler group; Advertising and media sales; Social media and websites?

If so, then come and join our team!

Who wants to be a Volunteer?

by Rosemary Banks

When the national news is full of gloom I am thrilled by the exciting changes happening in Caterham, particularly in the provision of services for the elderly.

The Caterham Car Scheme has two new volunteer drivers. The service is available to Tandridge residents who need lifts to and from medical appointments and such-like, the client paying 50p per mile to the driver at the end of the trip. Clients need to phone and book a car as soon as they receive an appointment, but with additional drivers we will be able to support more local people.

On March 13th the Well Being Centre opened in the Douglas Brunton Centre in Park Road. I am already recruiting more volunteers for the Centre to support projects that are up and running. Shortly they are opening the first Men in Sheds in this area for men who want to do something practical with their 'spare time' and create relationships while working alongside one another. Men in Sheds aims to provide a perfect setting; the shed is up and is rather fabulous.

There are a wide variety of volunteering opportunities at the Douglas Brunton Centre and The Caterham Car Scheme still would appreciate more drivers. If you are looking for a less 'active' kind of volunteering I would ask you to consider the Tandridge Befriending Scheme, where we take great care to match our volunteers with the people who so enjoy the hour a week that they spend with their Befriender. Please email me on caterhamvc@tvsc.org.uk or phone 01883 344444 for more details of these or other volunteering opportunities.

Readers' Letters

Dear Editor

Many of our local personalities have been profiled in local history records, such as those of the Bourne Society, and in local newspapers. There is one such person, who, as far as I know, has never been so featured even though his surname is displayed prominently in the district and is known nationally. He is Oliver R Croudace. My late wife, Mavis, was his secretary for a time in the late 1950s. The offices were above Mr Glidden's Craft Shop in Godstone Road, Caterham Valley. There was also an associated firm of estate agents, Croudace & Walker, in the same building as well as an architect, Mr Wicks.

I understood that Mr Croudace, known to his friends as 'Nollie', headed a small building firm employing three or four craftsmen on a casual basis. I heard that he occasionally did his own labouring. I was acquainted with Mr Croudace and drew some plans for him. I remember him as a big, genial man who could be seen around the Caterham district driving his enormous Oldsmobile open tourer - appropriate to his stature.

It is some years since Oliver R died. I wonder whether amongst your readers there is anyone who has sufficient information to compile an article on him? Perhaps they would contact me if they have.

Harold Barrett (late)

Harold Barrett sadly passed away on 7th February. He was born in Caterham in 1923 where he lived all his life. He was very active in the community and interested in many aspects of life in the local area. He was also quite a prodigious writer of articles and letters to various publications over the years. The above letter is the last letter he wrote just before he died and it was his wish that his son Keith should forward it to The Caterham and District Independent for publication. Keith said that although Oliver R Croudace gave his name to the local firm, he apparently only had a brief partnership with Jack Brotherton-Ratcliffe who is credited with founding the company in 1946.

Keith has asked that any responses to his father's letter can be sent to his e-mail address: harrybarnew@aol.com which will remain active so that Keith can complete the research started by his father.

Eating Out

Have a great night out 'Bollywood' style!

Review by Julia Church

One of Caterham's well-known 'hot-spots' is Bollywood Indian restaurant. Bollywood has built up an excellent reputation over the years and become a firm favourite amongst diners looking for a spicy night out in Caterham Valley!

My friend Sue and I dined there recently and received a warm welcome from the friendly staff. We were soon settled down with some Popadoms and a bottle of delicious house red wine, 'Pionnier 2011' - a mellow French wine.

After perusing the large selection of starters Mr Miah, the owner of the restaurant, recommended the charcoal roasted 'Sula Salmon' cooked with peppers and onion in a clay oven, 'Chicken 65' cooked Hyderabad style with curry leaves and green chilli and 'Meat Dosa', lovely lamb with spices served in a chapatti roll.

The food was wonderfully presented and was perfect for Sue and I to share. The chicken was quite spicy with a nice charcoal grilled flavour and Sue was especially impressed with the lovely tender salmon with the accompanying vegetables.

As we were tucking in the restaurant was gradually filling up with other diners and there was a friendly, warm ambience in the restaurant.

Mr Miah again recommended some superb main course dishes. Sue and I wanted to try something different to our usual favourites on this visit.

Mr Miah said that they are good at judging their customers' taste in food and like encouraging them to experience something new. We were served with 'Lamb Shaslik' that had been cooked on a skewer, 'Kadi Gosht', a medium hot lamb stew and a wonderful 'Murgh Sagraana', the chef's speciality cooked with cream and spices which was an especially big hit with Sue and me!

All of the dishes including the vegetable accompaniments

Sula Salmon.

Meat Dosa and Chicken 65.

were generous portions and we loved the various combinations of flavours.

Sue and I were very pleased to have been introduced to some exciting new dishes which we probably would not have chosen ourselves. We had been served a custom-made meal specifically to suit our personal tastes. Wonderful!

Come and try the new Caterham Community Choir

by Charlotte Jacobs

Residents of Caterham and the surrounding areas are invited to join Caterham's new local community choir. Free taster sessions will be taking place from 7pm-9pm on Tuesday 23rd and Tuesday 30th April at de Stafford School in Burntwood Lane, Caterham CR3 5YX. The choir is open to anyone aged above 10 years and no previous singing experience is necessary. The Caterham Community Choir will meet weekly at de Stafford School and is being run by community musician, Catherine Pestano. Catherine has worked with everyone from refugees, ex convicts, people with mental health issues and people with sensory disabilities. Catherine is very passionate about allowing people to express their voices.

Catherine said: "Your vocal print is twenty times more unique than your fingerprint, so if you do not express your voice the world is missing out on something really unique. I am looking to create an intergenerational choir that brings the community together. It's not about singing ability or age." The choir will learn to sing unaccompanied harmony songs with music from a range of genres including gospel, blues, folk and jazz. Arts Partnership Surrey, Tandridge Community Partnership, Caterham Hill Parish Council and Tandridge Trust are all local bodies who have come together to fund the choir. After the free taster sessions there will be a weekly charge of £4 per session or £2 for young people aged between 10-17 years, payable weekly.

Whyteleafe FC

by Adam Wilmott

Leafe started February attempting to overturn a one-goal deficit against Erith & Belvedere in the second leg of the Macron Cup tie. A last gasp winner for Erith & Belvedere ended Leafe's Kent Cup run, much to the delight of the Erith & Belvedere management. Leafe then stretched their impressive unbeaten run in the Kent Premier League to eleven games as Leafe dismantled Lordswood 4-0 at Church Road, scoring two goals in each half with debutant Roscoe D'Sane grabbing a brace. Leafe then travelled to Dulwich to face Fisher FC and returned with the three points, two second half goals ensuring a comfortable victory. March was always going to be a vital month and two defeats on the bounce effectively ended Leafe's faint promotion hopes. A 2-0 loss away at mid table Cray Valley on a Tuesday night was followed by an emphatic defeat in the crunch fixture against second placed VCD Athletic who proved too strong and emerged comfortable 4-1 winners at Church Road. Two good away wins then followed the setbacks - a 5-1 win at Sevenoaks Town featuring a Paul Scott hat trick and a satisfying 3-1 win against Herne Bay based Canterbury City with a strong performance helping to keep Leafe in third place trailing leaders Erith & Belvedere by six points, having played three more games. Four consecutive home games are taking place at Church Road. Deal Town visited on Saturday, 23rd March and Rochester United on the 30th March. The two Erith sides then visit, Erith Town on Easter Monday, 1st April and then league leaders Erith & Belvedere on 13th April, all 3pm kick-offs. Results of all home and away matches can be viewed at www.theleafe.co.uk.
