An MBE for community champion, Andy Parr

Caterham Festival Chairman, Andy Parr, has been awarded an MBE in the Queen's Birthday Honours List for his Services to the Community in Caterham, Surrey. As well as being Festival Chairman, Andy is on the Caterham Carnival Committee, is a member of Caterham Rotary Club, an honorary member of Caterham Round Table and Assistant District Commissioner for the Scouts.

Andy received a letter notifying him of the award back in May, but was not able to share his good news until the publication of the Honours List on Saturday 14th June, the day of the Caterham Carnival. Word soon spread and scores of people were congratulating Andy at the Carnival, including entertainer, Professor Crump! Andy said: "I'm absolutely delighted to be honoured with an MBE but there are loads of other people in Caterham also doing lots in the community to help make it a great place to live." Andy has promised not to wear his trademark shorts when he goes to Buckingham Palace to receive his award! Two other Caterham residents also received MBEs - Rachel Starling for Services to the Rail Industry and Jane Bond for Services to Policing. As Director of Property Services for the Metropolitan Police Service, Jane's work has been focussed on how the Metropolitan Police can best use its estate to support policing in London. Cont. on p2.

War-time nostalgia commemorates D-Day anniversary

Some WWII themed activities were organised in Caterham to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the D-Day landings.

On Friday 6th June The Blacksmiths Arms in the High Street, Caterham-on-the-Hill held a 1940s fancy dress charity night for Help for Heroes, with live swing-jive music from local band 'Vintage'.

Ladlady Sue Grant was delighted that the evening raised £1,005 for the charity, thanks to her generous customers and the raffle prize sponsors.

On Thursday 5th June, staff at Caterham Dene Hospital organised a WWII tea party for its elderly patients, with a sing-song to wartime songs and a fascinating display of WWII artefacts for the patients to reminisce over.

Queen's Birthday Honours

Jane said: "I'm thrilled to have been included in the Queen's Birthday Honours List. The Property Services Department that I work in is seeing a huge transformation, which is enabling savings to be reinvested back into policing. To get recognition for this is testament to how significant it is for policing in London."

Rachel Starling is being awarded an MBE for her

Rachel Starling MBE.

Services to the Rail Industry. As Environment Manager for HS1, Rachel has been managing the environmental impact of the line from St. Pancras to the Channel Tunnel since the project's inception, and her expertise is now being used for HS2.

Rachel said: "It has not sunk in yet. I was awarded a National Rail Award for Manager of the Year last year, so for me this is the icing on the cake. Being involved in HS1 all the way through and then to get personal recognition for my work is really fabulous!"

Jane Bond MBE.

Friends of Kenley Airfield host Heritage Day

On Sunday 15th June, the Kenley Airfield Heritage Day drew a big crowd of local families who enjoyed the various stalls outside the Portcullis Club, guided tours of the historic airfield and a spectacular display of model aircraft flying.

Live swing and jazz music was provided by Silk Road and among many highlights was the '1940's Food' table. Jane Sidell of English Heritage gave some useful tips and recipes and there were free tastings of a varied range of cakes, biscuits and buns all cooked from genuine wartime recipes.

Kenley Airfield Friends Group, who ran the event, gathered together a group of wartime veterans and current servicemen and women who meet regularly at the Portcullis/RAFA Club for a photo call.

Alan Morgan, Chairman of KAFG said: "The whole event was a great success and a fitting tribute to all who served at Kenley. It also demonstrated the huge local support for our Heritage Lottery Grant application to conserve the airfield and its historic structures. It was great to see the enthusiasm local people have for the airfield and the vital role it played in the defence of our country during the Battle of Britain."

Diary of a plantaholic

by Sue Baines

Ideal growing weather has meant the grass is growing just as fast as everything else. All my energies until now have been spent on sowing and planting for my flower borders, herbs, tomatoes or runner beans. Now it's time to give the lawn some serious attention. Geoff has been mowing about every ten days and has occasionally cut the edges. Although it's been a very mild spring and winter, the nights have been relatively cold, which slows the grass growth, but not any more. I used to try 'weeding and feeding' with very mixed results. Now the grass is growing strongly I use 'Evergreen Spray and Feed'. This attaches to a hose, and takes barely 20 minutes to do all four lawns. It promises to green up within 24 hours, and I am always pleased with the result. I never attempt to do it in times of drought. The best time is after reasonable rainfall. It does need to be done every six weeks or so. My lawn 'weeding' entails a pair of scissors and an eagle eye. I use them to dig down and get under the roots of dandelions, plantain, etc. Clover? Well that just gets cut with the lawn!! My runner beans are romping away as I write, but keeping the wildlife away and the soil warm has been a challenge. This year I have put old propagator lids in between plants and so far, it's working... Most of the big pots that I put into the borders a couple of months ago are now full of home-grown plants (and snails). Hopefully the extra depth of soil should mean sturdier plants and less watering. That's the plan anyway.

New florist opens in Caterham-on-the-Hill

On Friday 6th June Cllr. Beverley Connolly performed one of her last official duties as Chairman of Tandridge District Council, when she opened a new florist called 'The Flower Pocket' at 26 High Street, Caterham-on-the-Hill. The Grand Opening was a lively event, with local business owners mixing with press and friends of proprietor and Chief Florist Juliet Williams to share some bubbles. Beverley Connolly said: "I am delighted to be opening this new florist and am all in favour of encouraging new shops on the High Street. I can thoroughly recommend Juliet as a florist as she did the flowers for my Chairman's Ball recently and they were beautiful." Juliet said: "We are delighted and excited to be starting this new venture in the lovely village of Caterham-on-the-Hill and look forward to providing a friendly and useful service to the people of Caterham. We hope to meet as many of our new neighbours as possible over the coming weeks. Whether it be a simple bouquet or gift, a regular arrangement, or flowers for a special event or a sad occasion, we would be glad to help. Please come in for a chat to discuss what you need." Offering a wide range of flowers as blooms, bouquets, and arrangements, plus plants, gifts and cards, The Flower Pocket is not just a florist but a handy one-stop shop for that last-minute present. The website www.theflowerpocket.co.uk is also up and running. Here you can order flowers at the click of a button for collection or delivery. ## Look out for heat stroke in dogs this summer by Ian Mathers, Vet-on-the-Hill.

This summer, while you're enjoying the burgers and beer at your neighbours' barbecue, please remember that the summer months can be harsh for dogs, who are more susceptible to heat stroke than humans. They're covered in hair for a start, and unlike us sweaty humans, dogs primarily eliminate heat by panting. However, if a dog's environment is too hot, panting is ineffective and the dog can develop heat stroke. If a dog is left alone in a car with inadequate ventilation, this can happen in a matter of minutes. The symptoms of heat stroke include excessive panting, lethargy, salivation, rapid heart rate and a loss of co-ordination. This can progress to unconsciousness and death if left unchecked. If you suspect your dog is suffering from heat stroke you should move your dog to a cool, well ventilated area, away from direct sunlight. Douse the dog in tepid water using a shower or sponge. Don't use cold water and don't cover the animal with towels or sheets. Allow the dog to drink small amounts of water as frequently as possible. Seek veterinary attention immediately. (It may be necessary to hospitalise your dog and give intravenous fluids.) Remember, never leave your dog alone in the car; your dog can develop heat stroke even with a car window left open. Enjoy the good weather this summer, but don't forget the old adage: "Dogs die in hot cars".

DeFest Music Festival de Stafford School 25th - 26th May

The Caterham Festival 2014 got off to a lively start with the fabulous DeFest two-day music festival at de Stafford School at the end of May. Day one featured local rock bands while day two had a vintage, swing jive mood to get everyone twirling on the dance floor. The Ridge Radio team and Oakhall Church were amongst the local organisations running stalls at the event which was a resounding success again this year, thanks to organiser Mark Jones and his team.

Clouds loom over the lively action taking place on Day 1 of DeFest.

Caterham Festival Street Party Sunday 1st June

Hoads of people attended the Caterham Festival Street Party in the High Street, which is another established favourite on the Festival calendar. This year, the Boat Race was replaced by an equally riotous activity, a huge foam fight at the end of the day!

The event attracted hundreds of visitors from outside Caterham, which was especially good news for the High Street's specialist shops and traditional pubs.

Two girls get stuck into the Apple Bobbing.

FOOD FESTIVAL Sunday 8th June

With a host of colourful food stalls, lovely warm sunshine and plenty of Sangria flowing, the Caterham Food Festival on Sunday 8th June had a truly Mediterranean atmosphere this year. Croydon Road was closed for the day to enable crowds to browse amongst the stalls selling food from all over the world. The Festival Bake-Off, sponsored by Champ Consultants, attracted plenty of mouthwatering entries again this year!

Open Caterham Saturday 21st - Sunday 22nd June

During the Caterham Festival Open Weekend, local residents had the opportunity to explore places on their doorstep they may not have discovered before.

Guided tours were given of Caterham Barracks, The Arc, North Downs Hospital, Ridge Radio and even the centuries-old mines beneath Godstone and the Caterham By-pass (see photos far right).

Skaterham.

The owners of the 14th century Tollsworth Manor in Chaldon opened their beautiful garden to the public during the Open Weekend, donating all entrance monies to St. Catherine's Hospice.

Members of the Wealden Cave and Mine Society gave pre-booked tours of the mines beneath Godstone, exclusively for the Caterham Festival Open Weekend.

Although they did not take place during Open Caterham weekend, the fascinating guided tours of Chaldon Court earlier in June proved to be extremely popular. The photo shows Madeline Hutchins, the owner of Chaldon Court, showing visitors original architectural features such as the timber crown posts and passing braces. The oldest part of Chaldon Court dates back to 1366.

Andy points out a large fossil of a prehistoric fish in the ceiling of the mines.

Throughout the Festival .....

In addition to the big events like the Street Party, Food Festival and DeFest Music Festival were numerous smaller events throughout The Caterham Festival. There was something for everyone to enjoy, from Punch and Judy shows for the little ones, talks by local authors and fun and games at The Harrow pub. These photos give a snapshot of all the diverse range of events laid on during June.

'Waller Pain'.

As the Festival was drawing to a close for this year, Festival Chairman, Andy Parr, said: "It has been a brilliant year with some fabulous new events and everyone seemed to enjoy it. I think we did something for everyone and I am already getting people coming to me with suggestions for new events at next year's Festival!"

Readers' Letters

At the time of the 70 year anniversary of D-Day, I thought that readers might like to know of the archaeological remains in the soil around Chelsham and the memories I associate with them.

Back in 1944 I recall when as a boy of eight, all the Canadian troops that had been stationed in the woods and fields, arriving on Chelsham Common, outside the Hare and Hounds pub (now Amano's café).

We didn't know the reason but as they lay around the common drinking (the Hare and Hounds did a good trade that day!) awaiting their many lorries to pick them up, they must have dropped loose change etc. in the grass. For many it was their last taste of life as they would have perished in Normandy.

When Sainsbury's was being built they agreed to plant trees around the common and looking in the disturbed soil I found lots of old sixpences, threepenny bits, one dollars, shillings etc. - it brought back memories of those Canadian soldiers enjoying their last 'taste' of life on their Earth.
