Local lifeguards awarded for saving man's life

On Wednesday 25th January, the Royal Life Saving Society awarded six lifeguards from Tandridge Leisure Centre in Oxted with the prestigious Meritorious Lifeguard Award for their swift action when 68-year-old Timothy Napier suffered a heart attack while using the fitness pool. Newly qualified lifeguard, James Lynch, noticed that Mr Napier was lying face down in the water and after blowing his whistle to get his attention and receiving no response, James waded into the water to find the man was semiconscious and unresponsive. On hearing James blow the whistle, other members of the lifeguard team hurried to the poolside to assist him with lifting Mr Napier out of the pool. James then found that Mr Napier had stopped breathing and he was joined by two other Managers, Chris O'Neill and Trina Stravert, who immediately began to administer CPR and and treat Mr Napier with the defibrillator. After being flown to hospital by air ambulance, Mr Napier was taken straight to theatre where he received a pacemaker. All the lifeguards who assisted Mr Napier hold RLSS UK's National Pool Lifeguard Qualification (NPLQ), and for newly-qualified James and Kate, this was the first time either of them had dealt with an emergency situation. In total the team performed CPR for 20 minutes. On Monday 19th December, the team received a visit from Mr Napier who thanked them for their lifesaving intervention. He said he has committed to changing his lifestyle and so far has lost a stone and a half in weight. On presenting the team with their awards, Helen Bowker, RLSS UK's Community Drowning Prevention Co-ordinator, said: "On behalf of RLSS UK I'd like to congratulate these six lifeguards on their exceptional bravery and skill. As a former lifeguard I know how distressing these incidents can be – the fact that two of the lifeguards are newly qualified is a testament to the excellent training they have received."

Lisa-Marie's Easter Egg appeal gets off to a cracking start!

Lisa-Marie Elkhadraoui from Warlingham is teaming up with Cheam resident, Stacey Cooper, to bring some Easter joy to the sick children at Royal Marsden Hospital in Sutton this Easter. Lisa-Marie said: "When I saw Stacey launch her Easter Egg appeal on Facebook I immediately wanted to help by reaching out to the local communities here in Warlingham and Caterham and so far the response has been incredible. People as far as Croydon and London have picked up the post and want to help." Stacey said: "I wanted to do a fundraising event this year and I thought it would be nice to help the children at the Royal Marsden and bring a smile to their faces. I am very grateful to Lisa-Marie for helping to promote the appeal in her local area." Lisa-Marie is delighted that NatWest Bank in Caterham Valley and Hilltop Trends in Caterham-on-the-Hill have both offered to be drop-off points for Easter Eggs and Warlingham Community Library volunteer, Tina Picanza, has kindly offered to open the doors of the library to Easter Egg donations from local residents. Lisa-Marie has set a target of 500 Eggs, which will be taken to the Oak Centre for Children and Young Adults at Royal Marsden Hospital on 4th and 5th April. They are also collecting arts and crafts materials to donate to the youngsters. Lisa-Marie said: "If we can bring smiles to 500 young faces it will be wonderful and it would be great to spill over to donate Eggs to adult and elderly patients as well." Anyone wishing to support the appeal can take donations of Easter Eggs or art and craft materials to one of the drop-off points mentioned above.

Surrey Harmony celebrates its 25th anniversary

The award-winning women's a cappella chorus, Surrey Harmony, is celebrating its 25-year membership of the American-based singing organisation, Sweet Adelines International. The Coulsdon-based chorus was founded 25 years ago by Jenny Lawson of Cheam. It officially became a member of Sweet Adelines International in February 1992, embracing its motto of 'Harmonise the World'. Since then, Surrey Harmony has achieved success both at home and abroad, winning outright the UK Regional Championships for Sweet Adelines on five occasions. To date, the chorus is the highest placed UK representative at the World Championship event. Former members have gone on to sing in other successful Sweet Adelines groups in Sweden, Australia, New Zealand and various locations in America such as Alaska, Houston and Atlanta.

Wallington resident, Lorraine Turner, took over as Director three years ago. Lorraine said: "People come and go for a variety of reasons, but we are always proud to see former Surrey Harmony members on stage, regardless of whether they sing with another Sweet Adelines chorus or one from other organisations." Surrey Harmony will compete in the UK Championships in Newcastle in May. The chorus welcomes women of any age to rehearsals in Coulsdon every Wednesday. ### Rawlings celebrates the launch of its newly-refurbished store

On Saturday 28th January, Rawlings Opticians at 2-4 Croydon Road, Caterham re-opened its doors following six weeks of complete redesign and refurbishment. Visitors celebrated with the Rawlings team, enjoying refreshments and a goody bag as well as special offers on the day. They were shown around the newly modernised practice with its fresh, bright and spacious retail space as well as the new clinical areas for conducting comprehensive eye examinations and contact lens care.

Having been established for nearly 80 years in Caterham, Rawlings Opticians is an independent family run business, with Managing Director Richard Rawling being the fourth generation of the family. Richard is the son of John Rawling, who was well-known throughout the area as an Optician and eminent Tandridge District Councillor.

Richard said: "Having served the local community as an independent company for almost 80 years, we have a moral code of caring for our patients, giving them expert impartial advice alongside the most up-to-date professional care. We often see three or even four generations of the same family in the same week but we are also pleased to be accepting new NHS and private patients who receive the same high level of professional care as our existing customers".

Rob Eatwell, Qualified Dispensing Optician and Practice Manager, mentioned their latest diagnostic technology to aid the detection and monitoring of eye diseases such as Glaucoma, Diabetic Retinopathy and Macular Degeneration. Rob said: "We are thrilled to be bringing Optical Coherence Tomography ("OCT") to Caterham, as previously this type of equipment was often available only to hospitals. It allows us to scan the layers at the back of the eye for the earliest detection of eye problems and ensures patients are able to access hospital treatment before more problems have developed."

Soper Hall to undergo refurbishment to provide additional facilities for community

Office space in the Soper Hall in Caterham that was previously occupied by the Citizen's Advice Bureau ("CAB"), is being refurbished to provide a new hall for rental in addition to the two existing, well-used halls. The project, part-funded by the Surrey County Council Members' Allocation Fund, is due to commence in late March. It will form part of an exciting venture by the Soper Hall Board to update and improve the building, to include new accessible disabled facilities.

Soper Hall Board Chairman, Beverley Connolly, said: "We were sorry to see the CAB go but they are now in bigger, purpose built accommodation in Caterham Valley Library which is much better for their needs. In exchange, we get a fantastic opportunity to make the Soper Hall the centre for activity it was always meant to be. This new hall will provide a fabulous new space for community activities". Finance Director, Matthew Baker, said: "We are able to launch this project thanks to the successful marketing of the halls, which has resulted in a huge increase in bookings, combined with the brilliant fund-raising efforts of our events team. I am happy to say that the Soper Hall is in much improved financial health". Relationships Director for the Soper Hall, Michael Cooper, added: "We have had to turn away potential regular hirers as the halls are now full to capacity at busy times. A new hall means we will be able to provide much-needed extra space for classes, meetings and other events."

For more information about the Soper Hall, which is licensed for wedding ceremonies, visit www.soperhall.org.uk.

Favourite Food & Drink: Pizza and vino. The red wine was replaced with Perrier water until Dominique was born, though.

Maria Coyle with her partner Chris Wells and their new arrival, Dominique Coyle-Wells.

Pastimes: Singing, learning to play the piano, long walks in our beautiful countryside and charity work with Caterham, Oxted and Godstone Lions.

Likes: Holidaying and seeing new places.

Biggest influence on your life: My mum.

Proudest moments: Completing my first (and probably last) marathon last year and becoming president of COGs.

Most embarrassing moment: Being told mid-chop that you actually use the pale part of leeks not the dark green end. That was only very recently. Oops.

Where would you most like to live? I live there - Oxted.

If you won the Lottery jackpot, how would you spend it? After donating to my two favourite charities - COGs and The Children's Trust - I would travel the world with my family. There are so many wonderful places to explore.

Council announces result of community transport review

Following its recent review of community transport, Tandridge District Council ("TDC") have made the decision to award funding to East Surrey Rural Transport Partnership to provide dial-a-ride services across the district. The council's current agreement with East Surrey Dial-a-Ride ("ESDaR") expires on 31st March, so the new service will commence on 3rd April. However, the trustees of ESDaR have unanimously agreed to continue to provide its service to its members, despite failing in its attempt to secure continued funding from TDC.

Speaking about the council's decision to award funding to East Surrey Rural Transport Partnership, Councillor Nick Childs, Chairman of the Community Services Committee, said: "Community transport is an invaluable service for many residents who would otherwise not be able to easily travel around the area. We want to ensure we are providing the best possible service, which also gives value for money."

A spokesperson for ESDaR said: "The ESDaR trustees have acknowledged that continuing to provide our much loved and highly valued service without funding from TDC will provide challenges, but due to the incredible generosity of past and present members, we are confident we will be able to continue to provide our current level of service to the most vulnerable members of our community for a considerable period. We will need to establish a fundraising programme, especially to fund the purchase of replacement vehicles but on the positive side, we feel that being completely independent will enable us to explore additional opportunities regarding the service we provide."

ESDaR continues to welcome new members who, for reasons of age or infirmity, have difficulty in using conventional public transport. For further information call ESDaR Manager, Roger Atkins, on 01883 346547.

Diary of a Plantaholic

by Sue Baines

The snowdrops are glorious, and a reminder that it is "all systems go"! And being me, I see everything that needs doing.

Although I have, from experience, tried to prepare for spring since last autumn and through the winter, it is still a fact that there are only a certain number of gardening hours a day. Clearing up of stems and general debris starts in the places I see most. It is still easy to access every part of the borders, but not for much longer, as later bulbs and perennials are coming to life whilst I write. So much damage can be done in my crowded borders if I leave it too late. However, anything slightly tender - Penstemons, Verbena, etc. - are left until later to give them further protection.

Cutting back and feeding the roses is something I've made a good start on. Rose and Clematis food have been bought throughout winter, on special deals, so it isn't too expensive at one time. The Clematis have had a bit of a tidy up and there is a reasonable amount of growth to show what is alive and what is dead now. I only give a slight tidy up to any of the early flowering Clematis, as a hard prune at the wrong time could seriously diminish flowering.

I could cut back late summer Clematis, but I love them sprawling through my shrubs, so I will do the minimum. Again, access is easy now, though it is surprising how many weeds like to share the Clematis pots, which sit behind the larger shrubs. These Clematis were tiny three to four years ago, but are now full of promise.

Next month some of the tiny plug plants will arrive; seed sowing will be in full swing and I mustn't forget to order nematodes for the vine weevil. Of course there is still time, but I had better put it on my 'to do' list!

Whyteleafe FC sees end of season

success by Clive Davis

Whyteleafe Ladies remain unbeaten in the Surrey County Premier League and are still in the Capital Women's Cup and League Cup.

Whyteleafe FC Ladies Manager, Charlie Bickell, said: "This is the first time in its 70 year history that the Club has had a women's team and we are very much on track to get promotion in our very first season."

Doing equally well is the Club's U21 side. Unbeaten since September, the team is currently second in the league. It hasn't been quite so successful for the Whyteleafe FC 1st team which has had a roller coaster of a season, winning and losing in equal measure. But with the team safe in mid-table, Leigh Dynan, who took over as 1st Team Manager in November, is already looking ahead to next season. In March, the team will be playing on the 4th v South Park, 7th v Faversham, 18th v Greenwich Borough and 25th v Cray Wanderers.

Meanwhile, the Club's Foundation is launching a new community after-school initiative for all youngsters who love playing the beautiful game. The "pay-as-you-play" sessions take place every Wednesday from 5pm-6pm.

The Club is also doing its bit for Red Nose Day. Throughout the week of 20th-26th March, the Club will be holding a Sports Book Sale and

Leathwoods - one of our longest - trading local businesses

Chris Leathwood is the third generation of his family to run the car sales business his grandfather, Stanley Leathwood, started in Croydon in 1916. The Leathwoods name became well-known in the Croydon area for many decades and the business has built up a reputation for fairness and integrity. Chris is proud that Leathwoods installed Croydon's first ever petrol pump at their Selhurst Road premises in 1921, when it was only a small minority of well-to-do residents who owned a motor car. The business passed down to Stanley's sons Paul, Ray and Ken, then Paul's son Chris joined the family business when he left school. The motor trade has seen a lot of changes since 1916, including the introduction of the MOT test in 1960, so these days all the cars supplied by Leathwoods come with a new MOT certificate in addition to a full warranty and HPI check.

Six years ago Leathwoods relocated to its current premises shared with Christian Cars in The Crescent in Woldingham. The stock of nearly-new cars, most of them with just one previous owner, range in price from £2,000 to £15,000 and can be viewed at www.leathwoods.co.uk
